

Review of my work

Overall I'm pleased with my works but there is always room for improvement so moving forward in my projects I would work on trying to make my images more appealing and iconic so it would stick in the viewers minds more, make the images more cohesive so they look like a complete project.